There are gaps, between the parts. Part 3 is about The Law of Karma. Karma is simple to explain "Every action you make whether positive or negative, you will get back the benefits/ outcome of your action" with in one's life time or next birth. As per one's free will, one can find ways to escape prarabdha karma. But such actions will not get success and put one into more problems. So it is best to accept whatever comes and believe that "whatever God does is for the best".

The subtitle of this book is "The Law of Karma". Here the Aghora, the mentor of the author, with whom he spent around 7 years, puts forth his knowledge of the Karmic effects of our acts. All acts are karmic, no act is beyond or above karma...we have to go through the effects of all our actions + thoughts + intentions during all our lives -- when or how or in which birth? -- that only nature decides....

Aghora III by Robert E. Svoboda - Goodreads

This book is the third and final part of the Aghora Trilogy. Summary Of The Book. What is karma and how does it govern one's life? The word karma is often used but little understood. Karma is the spiritual application of Newton's third law - for every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction. The aghoris are practitioners of the Tantra philosophy. They frequent places that are normally considered taboo, places that people avoid unless necessary, like cremation or burial grounds. They ...

This book's expositions on the Law of Karma are an amazing study in human relationships and the duties and debts which we all owe. The concept that any animal killed for pleasure or even food gains the right to be reborn in such a way that the debt may be repaid in a like manner, is reasonable, even if frightening to those of us who have eaten, or continue to eat meat and/or are involved in pastimes which may be abusive to animals or people, or even plants. It is comforting to see how thorough ...

The Law of Karma, which is one of the most profound and fiendishly perplexing of reality's axioms, is the Law of Cause and Effect, the law of 'as you sow, so shall you reap.' The oldest of the Upanishads expresses it this way: 'Truly,' one becomes good by good action and bad by bad action.' (Brihadaranyaka Upanishad III.2.13).
