Cedarhurst Alley will not have airline executives queuing up at bookstores to rush copies to their stockholders. But if taken in the vein in which it was undoubtedly written, it is a humorous, highly readable book."- Business & Commercial Aviation "Moreover, the book is not what you would expect. It is sound enough technically to satisfy the stomachs of controllers and pilots-a burp here or ...

Cedarhurst Alley, by Denison Hatch, is the story of a Long Island resident driven to desperate (and desperately funny) measures to combat the airport traffic noise that is driving down the value of his house and driving his young daughter to a mental state resembling autism. It's also the story of teamwork and timing, with unlikely characters becoming part of the plan. Cast of Characters: I ...

This listing, Cedarhurst 1 is for the larger of the two. This room has an additional bed, a daybed that is easily transformed into a second bed for a child, it is not really meant for a mature person. Both rooms are bright and airy, filled with sunlight in the afternoon. In case both rooms are booked, the bathroom, on the same floor will be shared with other guests. We offer a simple breakfast ...
