In her first book, How You Can Survive When They're Depressed, Anne Sheffield coined the phrase 'depression fallout' to describe the emotional toll on the depressive's family and close friends who are unaware of their own stressful reactions and needs. I ask forgiveness for my harsh words. Being not only a diabetic, a depression fallout sufferer who has suffered unending pain and trauma, over 15 years (since my father's death) along with extreme bereavement trauma. My only constructive critique of Anne's book: has to do with this aspect of depression fallout: my situation is different from others. Living with my mother, (crippled by not merely depression, but arthritis, and extreme bereavement trauma) I have to try to live with and through my own ...
