For A Marian Church Marist

A Marian church stands at the foot of the cross. She does not take refuge in a fortress, or in a chapel, or in cautious silence, when others are being crushed. She is vulnerable, in her deeds as in her words. With humble courage, she stands with the most insignificant. A Marian church lets the winds of Pentecost come in, the winds that push outwards

Plea for a Marian Church - maristmessenger.co.nz

a French Marist, Fr. Francois Marc, wrote a poetic plea that he entitled "Une Eglise Mariale," in English, "A Marian Church." Tragically, Fr. Francois died about ten years ago of cancer at the age of 46. For this talk I would simply like to read his poem. Fr. Francois Marc gives us a beautiful vision of what the Church could be. It is our calling as Marists

Church', 'Mary model of the Church', 'A Marian Church', 'Begin again a new Church'; only this last expression is really Colnian. Sometimes Marists roll several of these together, for example to say that our mission is 'to build a Marian Church'. Perhaps we need to unscramble them and look carefully at each. Finally I want to look again at what it means to be the Society of ...

1. A Marian Vision of the Church

A Marian Church is a Church which makes a choice for compassion over competition; an option for relationship over dogmatism; for humility over power; for service over dominance. It is a Church which pushes its boundaries to include all, rather than one which defines its boundaries to contain the chosen. And it is a Church which includes the feminine in its attitudes, which can too easily become over-masculine.

A Marian Church - A Certain Way

I am a Marist priest and the Promoter for Marist Laity. This is the fifteenth in our series of talks on Marist spirituality. We are meditating on a poem by Marist Father François Marc entitled "A Marian Church." In this talk I would like to comment on the third stanza of the poem, which reads: A Marian church rejoices and sings.

A Marian Church: - Marist Laity

The Marian Church lives in Nazareth in silence and simplicity. She does not live in a castle. Her home is like all the other homes. She goes out to chat with the other villagers. She weeps with them, she rejoices with them, but she never preaches to them. Above all she listens. The Marian Church stands at the foot of the Cross. She does not take refuge in a fortress or in a chapel or in prudent silence when people are being crushed. She is vulnerable in her deeds as in her words. With a ...

Vision - Society of Mary, Marist Fathers and Brothers

The Marian Church knows she is the object of a gratuitous love, and that God has the heart of a mother. She has seen God on the doorstep, on the lookout for the improbable return of a son; she has seen him throw his arms around his neck, place the festal ring on his finger, and himself organise the home-coming feast. When she pages through the family album, she sees Zaccheus in his sycamore ...

REFLECTION... - Marist Laity NZ: Building a Marian Church ...

The Marian church follows Mary into the mountains, going off with her to encounter life; she visits men and women, and though things may seem to be sterile, she is on the watch for what is coming to birth, for possibilities, for the life which beats in things. The Marian church rejoices and sings. Instead of bemoaning its fate and the world's woes, she is in wonder at the beauty there is on ...
