GRAND CANYON ADVENTURES

When we finally reached the rest of the group at the mouth of Elves Chasm, Steve started to go on a rant about being part of a group and caring about others, but as he was doing so, a gorgeous yellow Western Tiger Swallowtail Butterfly came by and landed right on his head! Brutal up and down on sharp rocks in the heat of the day makes for a looong 2.5 miles to Elves Chasm . This butterfly ...

Elves Chasm | Sirena's Wanderings

Elves Chasm is a lovely, shaded grotto with a waterfall. Its emerald colored pool is perfect for swimming on a hot day. There is a cave-like climb up into the waterfall and a spot that people jump from, but this can be treacherous unless you have an experienced guide to point the way. (note: there are reports of high fecal content in the water and definitely a lot of unwashed bodies swim here ...

Grand Canyon, Ariz. - On Wednesday, October 20, at approximately 1:30 p.m., the Grand Canyon Regional Communications Center received a report of a fatality on a private river trip on the Colorado River. According to the report, a member of the party had been hiking above Elves Chasm (located near river mile 117) and had fallen to his death. Trip members had retrieved the body and were already back on the river.
