Kingbird Highway The Biggest Year in the Life of an ...

Kingbird Highway is an interesting traveling account about a young man's quest to see as many birds in the field as he can in a year ("A Big Year"). I enjoyed the beautiful and scenic journey through nature (especially his poetic writings on Alaska), but there was also the social network of birders that Kaufman encountered throughout the nation. I liked reading about the differing perspectives ...

Kingbird Highway: The Biggest Year in the Life of an ...

Kingbird Highway is an autobiography, a travelogue, and a `where-to-berd' guide for 1973. It is a tale of life, liberty, and the pursuit of birds. Kingbird, alias Kenn Kaufman drops out of high school to pursue his dream (obsession) of seeing more birds in a single year than anyone had ever seen before. There are several catches to his liberty and pursuit of birds. He must see the birds north ...

Kingbird Highway: The Biggest Year in the Life of an ...

As ornithologist Kenn Kaufman recounts in his lively memoir Kingbird Highway, he's managed to do what other birders only dream of doing: take a year and chase winged creatures from one end of the country to another. The year in question was 1973, when Kaufman was 19 years old, and a few dollars and an outstretched thumb could go a long way.

Kingbird Highway Quotes by Kenn Kaufman - Goodreads

Kingbird Highway by Kenn Kaufman. I'm going to admit right up front that I have not yet finished this book. I really enjoyed what I read, but as life got busy, I just found it tough to make the time for reading this. It's far more interesting than I would have thought, as it is, on the surface, a book about birding. And since I have no prior interest in the subject, I wasn't sure how it ...
