A story about the unlikely love affair between a Lakota Soux warrior and a young white female set against the backdrop of the indian wars. Once again, a tale of a noble warrior versus dastardly white soldiers. I found the ending quite unbelievable, although it was easy reading and one does feel some sympathy for the main characters.

Lakota Love Song is the first of its genre I've ever indulged in, but for the exceptional e-book price ($1.99), I felt adventurous enough to give it a try. Baker does her homework and it shows in this book as she makes the effort to expose the reader to Lakota culture in a way that's interesting and enlightening. Her character, Blue Hawk, is brave, noble, amiable, and easy to fall in love with ...
