Repossessed A.M. Jenkins

Though the replacement of a real boy with a do-gooder, lackadaisical demon makes this effort feel less directly urgent, less real than Beating Heart (2006), Kiriell's own search for meaning and direction from his own realm in this ...

Repossessed by A.M. Jenkins - The Book Muncher

Repossessed is a clever, funny book with a lot of teen appeal. I enjoyed it a lot more than I expected. Kiriell's voice in this first person novel is distinctive and likable. He's rebellious, questioning, at times even angry, and yet beneath that is a depth and a goodness that belies the demon label. Although he is in many ways different than the teen whose body he inhabits, he is clearly a ...

Repossessed by A. M. Jenkins | LibraryThing

I would try another Jenkins book, it was good enough for that, but if another left me feeling dissatisfied and underwhelmed, I don't think I'd give him a third chance. View all my reviews >> Bonus Material: Repossessed got a lot of good buzz. I may just be (probably am) picky. I saw potential, but I wanted more.
