How to use it: This is a favourite swear word in Russian. It was previously used freely, but in the 19th century made it to the list of restricted words. The root of the word means 'wander around', referring to a woman who sleeps around. The original meaning refers to a woman of an ancient profession but actually isn't used in that sense. It is more of an exclamation that can be used separately or as part of a sentence, akin to 'f*ck'. It is considered very rude.
