Defending the Early Years (DEY) was launched in February 2012 to defend children's right to play, grow, and learn in an era of so-called standards and accountability. The pushing down of inappropriate academics and testing into the early grades has already driven child-initiated free play and hands-on active learning out of many kindergartens. Now this dangerous trend is invading preschools. We call upon educators to speak out about what is happening in their classrooms, schools ...
