Slither (Book 11) takes Joseph Delaney's The Last Apprentice series in a somewhat different but quite interesting direction. It was narrated alternately from the perspective of a dark creature from another country named Slither, a haizda mage who is a Kobalos (a kind of creature we learn a lot more about over the course of the book) and Nessa, one of three sisters who fall into his custody after their father dies. Their father has made a desperate agreement with Slither: if he will deliver ...
