8 responses to "There's a Booger in My Sugar" julie gardner . February 24, 2011 at 10:14 am. Oh, we've been there. I look at that picture and her little tongue poised in the middle of her mouth (it's a frozen shot, but I know that tongue is quivering) and then I lower my view and spot the cute little smiling ladybug... It's just not fair. That ladybug has NO IDEA what's going on ...

There's a Booger in My Sugar | Meet the Buttrams

And if there's not a big nasty booger there, it's almost like Christmas morning, right?! It's like that a lot of times in life as well. We deploy so many counter measures so that hopefully no one will see our self diagnosed glaring weaknesses that we feel are there for everyone to see. But the measures that we put into place are hardly subtle and usually detrimental to our relationships ...

Tickle in Nose: How to Get Rid of It and Causes

I've had this booger in my nose for AT LEAST two years, and I absoLUTELY cannot get it out. It's stuck WAYYYY up in my left nasal cavity, so using my finger to fish it out is impossible. If I close my right nostril and blow REALLY hard, the booger moves but doesn't come out. After trying to snot-rocket it out, I can jam my finger in there, but ...

Please tell me if there's a booger in my nose! By tobi November 10, 2014 No Comments. Last week I noticed the people I greeted at the coffee shop taking doubt takes. While waiting for my latte I went to the bathroom and under the fluorescent lights realized I had put on enough blush to perform as a circus clown. The lighting in my house is awful, and my blush appeared to be just fine under ...

She went back a second time with the same tissue and Audrey emphatically stated, "No! There is a booger in there." The story does not end there. Here are two more booger stories. One morning TM went in to greet Audrey and the new day. Lying in her bed Audrey was moving her lips, screwing up her face and making a variety of facial expressions.
