Warhammer Fantasy Roleplay: A Grim World of Perilous ...

Warhammer Fantasy Roleplay is, in my personal opinion, one of the most comprehensive, least abstract, not to mention entertaining, RPG systems I've played. I have plenty of opportunity to see good products -working at a gaming store as I do- and I've seen my fair share of games. This one has always been a favorite. I'm sad to see it was discontinued for a board-game level rpg which is far less ...

However, the genre is also well suited for grimmer less clear-cut adventures as shown by Bretonnia-RPG. Bretonnia-RPG started as a fan-supplement for the original edition of WFRP (Warhammer Fantasy Role-Play, 1986).

Bretonnia-RPG, Period-Fantasy Grim Swashbuckling

In 1986, the 1st edition of Warhammer Fantasy Roleplay was released by Games Workshop, a product that went alongside Warhammer Fantasy Battle, the miniature wargame, Warhammer 40k, the futuristic and decadent wargame, and other products. I still remember playing the scenario included in the rulebook when I was about 12 years old. No, I was not an invincible hero full of hit points anymore, but ...
